GENOELS-ELDEREN CASTLE • BELGIUM • 24 MARCH 2019

Genoels-Elderen Castle

The first auction of the Wijnmakerlaarsunie Museum collection will take place at the wine castle of Genoels-Elderen, which is situated in Belgian Limburg. Genoels-Elderen is the smallest municipality of Riemst. The name Genoels came from its first Lord, Godenoel of Elderen, who lived from 1265 to 1305. As an agricultural village, Genoels-Elderen is especially renowned for its fruit cultivation. The first traces of wine production in this region date back to the Romans. Also, the Castle of Genoels-Elderen, today's "Wine Castle" has an impressive history behind it.

The first castle of Genoels-Elderen was built in the 13th century, for Godenoel of Elderen, but in 1407 it was burned to the ground by the people of Tongeren. In the 18th century a second version was destroyed by the French. The current classicist construction was built in 1859 for the Earl de Borchgrave.

Alongside the tree alley there is a castle wall. The French garden, with an 18th century tree alley in a cathedral form, is inspired by those of Versailles. The gardens also have a pond and grass terraces positioned before the castle. These beautiful surroundings invite one for a lovely spring walk.

Today the castle of Genoels-Elderen has 22 ha of vineyards, the largest and most modern wine domain of Belgium. Since 1991, Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Pinot Gris vines have been planted on the hills of Limburg. They grow especially well in Haspengouw. The unique terroir, the healthy grapes and the effort of the team of this wine castle together create various refined, award-winning wines which will be served during our auction.

VENDEUR AU CHATEAU

Wijnmakelaarsunie Museum Collection

Exceptional and Superb Wines

IN ASSOCIATION WITH TROOSTWIJK AUCTIONS

The founder of the Wijnmakelaarsunie had a keen eye for superb wines. A true visionary, he knew exactly what to buy, when to buy it and how long to keep it. He placed his treasures in his beautiful wine cellars in Diepenbeek, Belgium. The collection is so extensive that a walk through these cellars is akin to admiring art in a museum. In fact, the motto of the collector was "le vin, c'est mon art".

Unfortunately, after 50 years, bankruptcy put an end to his lifelong passion, but what remains is a cellar with exceptional provenance stocked with the very best of the best.

The collection that comes under the hammer at Winefield's Auctioneers comprises around 50,000 bottles of exceptional producers. Burgundy is particularly well represented, featuring a staggering number of wines from Domaines such as Romanée-Conti, Henri Jayer, Leroy, Comtes Lafon, Henri Boillot, Méo-Camuzet, d'Auvenay, Ponsot, Roumier, Dugat-Py and practically every wine Coche-Dury ever made! But the collection does not stop at Burgundy. Practically all the Crus Classés of Bordeaux are represented, along with iconic wines like Petrus, Cheval Blanc, Ausone and Pavie. The collection is largely French, with every region including The Rhône, Alsace, Loire, South West, Provence and The Languedoc receiving careful consideration, but quality producers from Italy like Quintarelli and from Germany like Keller are also included. These bottles are part of the total collection of approximately 130,000 bottles in total.

Winefield's Auctioneers has been carefully cataloguing the entire Wijnmakelaarsunie Museum Collection for some time now. Our experts and appraisers had every bottle of this first auction in their hands. The wines are grouped by lot, the conditions accurately described, and if necessary, professional restoration work is carried out. Finally, all the bottles that we offer in this first auction have been photographed.

In this museum of wine our team discovered real treasures that can be seen as real art. The first auction gives an excellent selection of the superb wines the Wijnmakelaarsunie Museum Collection has to offer.

Winefield's Auctioneers considers it an honour to offer the Wijnmakelaarsunie Museum Collection at auction in association with Troostwijk Auctions and we are very grateful to both the management of Troostwijk Auctions and the curator Mr. Hubert Berghs that this assignment has been granted to us. This is an exceptional cellar, the kind that appears once in a lifetime, offering a unique opportunity to collectors, investors and enthusiasts alike.

No interest will be paid on security deposits paid by the buyer or prospective buyer.

6.3 In the event that (among other things) the buyer or prospective buyer does not take possession of the purchased items within the time period fixed for this and/or the buyer or prospective buyer acts contrary to the provisions of paragraph 2 of this clause, the buyer or prospective buyer is automatically in default and Winefield's Auctioneers is entitled to terminate the agreement with the buyer or prospective buyer by means of a written statement and/or to sell the purchased items to one or more third parties. Glossary of Terms

Into Neck:

Normal level for all wines. In wines over 10 years of age, this level suggests excellent provenance. Rarely used, except to emphasize a particularly good fill level when other fill levels in the same lot are less than perfect.

Base Neck:

A common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

Top-Shoulder:

Again, a common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

Very High Shoulder:

Acceptable fill level for wines 8 or more years of age. Suggests proper storage conditions throughout its life. Natural occurrence for wines of this age.

High Shoulder:

Usually not a problem for wines in excess of 20 years of age. This level may be caused by easing of the cork combined with natural evaporation. Check the clarity and the color of the wine in the bottle as a secondary indicator of provenance.

High-to-Mid-Shoulder:

Refer to High Shoulder and Mid-Shoulder level descriptions.

Mid Shoulder:

May suggest ullage during the life of the wine due to either easing of the cork or inconsistent storage conditions. Not abnormal for wines 30 or more years of age. As additional indicators of risk, definitely inspect clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as condition of the cork.

Low Shoulder and Below:

Suggests poor provenance. Definitely a risk and generally not saleable, with exception given to rare bottlings and/or labels. Not recommended for consumption.

Wines are described in this catalogue as accurately as possible. Buyers are urged to make allowances for slight variations in ullages and conditions. No guarantee is made regarding provenance, and no returns will be accepted.
