Message from Milan Veld, CEO

Dear Wine Lover,

We hope this catalogue of our 60th wine auction in Amsterdam on 14 March finds you well.

This time, I wanted to share a personal note with you. My passion for wine made me start Winefield's Auctioneers 15 years ago, this together with my good friend Martin Derksen. Together, we started a specialized wine auction business, even though not many people believed in the proposition of auctioning fine wines. At that time, it was the biggest – and most risky – adventure in my professional live. Today, Winefield's Auctioneers turns out to be one of the most reputable auction houses in the market.

Over these years, I have learned that the first key to a successful wine business is simply to know what to focus on. I have strived to make a difference in the auction world, by making quality wines accessible to everyone. Every auction, I took the opportunity to make Winefield's Auctioneers as a company a little better; step by step. Of course, I also wanted to create a cool and fancy company, enjoying the best wines available, and generate high incomes, etc. These are all more or less valid reasons, but the most important thing I concluded is that the auction business is a business of gaining trust, and this as a guidance in all our day-to-day business operations.

Over the years, this philosophy has led to even greater dedication, motivation, and appreciation, and brought us to what we are as a company today. And that is how we developed from a small starting enterprise to a company which is market leader in both The Netherlands and Singapore with a dedicated, specialized and highly motivated group of staff.

Looking back, I am extremely proud that we were able to make these steps, and a big thank you to everyone who has had a part in this over the past 15 years. I can not wait for the next chapter.

Very best regards on behalf of the Winefield's team,

Milan Veld

Burgundy

Domaine Jacky Truchot is one of the legendary producers in Burgundy. Jacky Truchot is famed for producing incredibly pure and fragrant Pinot Noir from Morey- Saint-Denis. Jacky Truchot retired after the 2005 vintage and sold all except one of his vineyards to David Duband. Jacky kept a small section of his Morey-Saint-Denis 1er Cru Les Sorbes for his own consumption. 2005 was the last vintage of Jacky Truchot wines that are commercially available. What is special about Jacky Truchot was he firmly believed in is traditional winemaking style and never changed it from beginning till his retirement. Jacky Truchot wines are old fashioned Burgundies, traditional winemaking – 100% destemmed, no cold soaking, no filtration, not much new oak and high yield on the vineyard. Jacky Truchot did not do any green harvest to reduce yields. His wines are always close to the maximum yield the appelation allows.

All the wines from Jacky Truchot in this auction are acquired directly at the domaine by the current owners.

R 1 bottle

Per lot € 1100 – 1400

The history of Domaine Emmanuel Rouget is forever tied to the famous vigneron Henri Jayer, Emmanuel's uncle. Henri began to think about the future of his domaine and though he had two daughters, neither of them were interested in making wine. In 1985 he took on his nephew Emmanuel Rouget as his protégé and began leasing some of his vines to him. Over the years, Jayer gave up more and more vines to his nephew.

In 2001, following his retirement, all of his vines went under the control of Emmanuel Rouget. Since 2011, the control of the domaine has passed to Emmanuel's two sons Nicolas and Guillaume. Nicolas keeps watch over the vineyards while Guillaume is principally in the winery.

Per lot € 3300 – 4200

Château Haut-Brion is one of the five First Growth wines of Bordeaux, and the only one from Graves. Located on two hillocks of gravel over clay and sand in Pessac for a classic Graves terroir. It is the oldest wine estate in Bordeaux and was even served to Charles II! The estate is now owned and lovingly managed by the Dillon family, the royal family of Luxembourg.
"Whether it's a coincidence, or because in relatively cool years the first-growth terroirs are brilliant, Haut-Brion has turned out a beautifully classic, medium-bodied, precise and focused 2002 boasting a deep ruby/purple color as well as strikingly elegant aromatics (crushed stones, plums, black cherries, currants, figs, and earth). The wine possesses impressively measured power and elegance offered in a medium-bodied, nicely-structured, exceptionally pure format. It is unusual for Haut-Brion to dominate La Mission Haut-Brion at such a young age, but it certainly does in the 2002 vintage."

“The 1992 Petrus is clearly one of the two candidates for wine of the vintage. The normal production of 4,500 cases was severely reduced to only 2,600 cases, resulting in an atypically concentrated, powerfull, rich wine with a dark, saturated ruby/purple color, a tight but promising nose of sweet black cherry fruit, vanillian, caramel, and herb-tinged mocha notes. Concentrated and powerful, with superb density of fruit and richness, as well as wonderful sweetness to its tannin, this is a brilliant effort for the vintage.”

Masseto IGT Toscana 2013

Tenuta dell'Ornellaia, Bolgheri

Excellent level and appearance

R 3 bottles (OWC)

Per lot € 1500 – 2000

"The 2013 Masseto paints a glorious picture of Tuscany. It captures an inspired moment in time and walks an impressive tightrope between power and elegance. In my preview tasting last year, I noticed the firm textural richness of the 2013 vintage and the crystalline sharpness of its aromas. Thanks to 12 additional months of bottle aging, that impression is evermore constant and concrete. The focus is there, yet the wine has also fleshed out and put on more velvety definition especially in terms of mouthfeel. It wears its pedigree with pride, but most importantly it offers the balance and integration to promise a long and healthy aging future. The 2013 vintage follows closely on the heels of the impeccable 2006 and 2010 vintages in terms of cellaring potential. This is definitely a bottle that should interest collectors."

Sassicaia means “the place of many stones,” and refers to the region’s gravel soil. The original vineyards have a southwest exposure with extensive sun and maritime breezes that create robust vegetation. Grapes are handpicked, destemmed and crushed before fermenting with natural yeasts in temperature-controlled stainless steel tanks. The wine is aged in French oak barriques, then refined in bottle before release. Sassicaia’s success prompted the Italian government to grant the wine its own appellation, Bolgheri Sassicaia DOC, beginning with the 1994 vintage.

Quintessa 1999
Rutherford Estate, Napa Valley
Excellent level and appearance
R 6 bottles (OWC)
Per lot € 600 – 800

A cold and dry start to the 1999 vintage induced the vines into deep dormancy. By late winter, after sufficient rainfall, the clouds disappeared as if by magic and the much-awaited sun broke through. Spring was here and nature caressed the vines with soft placid days, providing ideal conditions for fruit set. Summer was mild with only a few avid bouts of heat that were tempered by diligent water management. Total crop load was low but the vines were graced with small, full berries carrying ripe flavours and spicy aromas. In the 1999 vintage, the cool evenings captured the necessary acidity to keep the wine's structure in balance. Harvest occurred in early October when the fruit had reached a culmination of flavours. Quintessa 1999 has attained deep, integrated flavours with round tannins along with very elegant fruitiness.

Hill of the Grace is the name of both the vineyard and the wine that has become probably one of the best wines from Australia. The Hill of Grace vineyard is about 8 hectares in size, planted predominately but, rather surprisingly, not exclusively to Shiraz. Shiraz accounts for about 7 hectares separated into blocks according to vine age and soil type, but there are also small blocks of Mataro, Semillon and Riesling. The white grapes are used in the Eden valley varietal wines. The Mataro usually has problems ripening sufficiently though occasionally it is included in the Hill of Grace blend. Cyril Henschke created the first Hill of Grace in 1958 from shiraz vines at Hill of Grace vineyard, up to 100 years old. The exceptional quality of the wine combined with the charm of the name captured the imagination of consumers.

Since 1990 Château Laplagnotte-Bellevue has been carefully guided by the De Labarre family who purchased this diminutive property from the owners of Château Cheval Blanc, St. Émilion's most illustrious wine estate. The De Labarre family wisely retained Cheval Blanc's winemaker, Bernard Gaudin-Lecourt and solicited the assistance of consulting oenologist Dany Rolland in order to optimize the estate's potential. The wine is very representative of its vintage. The burgundy color, dark and dense, announces an already complex bouquet that exudes aromas of very ripe grapes (cherry, black currant, plum) and caramelized stave, vanilla. The taste brings a lot of pleasure through its perfect harmony between fruity, spicy, woody flavors, between the body and the structure coupled with silky tannins.

Meursault 'Clos des Ambres' 2009

Domaine Arnaud Ente, Meursault

Excellent level and appearance

W 2 bottles

Per lot € 900 – 1400

That Arnaud Ente is rarely seen outside of his vines or cellar is a reflection of his tireless dedication to his métier, and a key to the stellar quality of his wines. For the Entes, it's not about pursuing the spotlight, although their incredibly sought-after wines have made them stars in the region. Arnaud and his wife, Marie-Odile, work primarily on their own to craft an exquisite range of micro-production white Burgundies from Meursault and Puligny-Montrachet. Precision, purity, elegance, and finesse are the best descriptors of the Ente style. Each vine is nurtured through every step of the yearly cycle, and each cru and village wine receives the exact same impeccable treatment; even the "entry-level" Aligoté and Bourgogne Blanc show the layered richness and complexity of a much more sophisticated appellation.

Échézeaux Grand Cru 2003
Domaine François Lamarche, Vosne-Romanée
Excellent level, 4LSTL
R 8 bottles (OWC)
Per lot € 1000 – 1500

The Echézeaux Grand Cru comes from a 1.32-hectare parcel in the lieu-dit of Les Champs Traversins. An exuberantly spicy nose reflects aromas of exotic tea, sandalwood, red and dark currant plus a pretty array of floral elements. The supple and round flavors possess both good volume and richness though not nearly the same minerality on the succulent yet still entirely serious finish that coats the palate with sappy dry extract.

Per lot € 2800 – 3600

Domaine Bizot got it's "Cult" status because of the philosophy behind its owner and wine maker, Jean-Yves Bizot. Bizot who was a geologist and then an oenologist started working at the domaine in 1993 and his first vintage was 1995. According to him, the first thing he did once getting into the wine maker's shoes was to "unlearn" everything he learnt at school. He adopted a very minimalist winemaking approach. All the domaine's wines are vinified as whole cluster and the fermentation is done in wooden vats at as low temperature as possible. He uses in most cases no sulfur at all His first vintage without sulfur was 1998. All the wines are aged in 100% new oak.
The only Grand Cru the domaine produces is Échézeaux, and the production is just five barrels. The entire production is bottled by hand barrel by barrel. These wines are built for long aging and require time to open up if drank too early.

Burgundy

Domaine Jacky Truchot is one of the legendary producers in Burgundy. Jacky Truchot is famed for producing incredibly pure and fragrant Pinot Noir from Morey- Saint-Denis. Jacky Truchot retired after the 2005 vintage and sold all except one of his vineyards to David Duband. Jacky kept a small section of his Morey-Saint-Denis 1er Cru Les Sorbes for his own consumption. 2005 was the last vintage of Jacky Truchot wines that are commercially available. What is special about Jacky Truchot was he firmly believed in is traditional winemaking style and never changed it from beginning till his retirement. Jacky Truchot wines are old fashioned Burgundies, traditional winemaking – 100% destemmed, no cold soaking, no filtration, not much new oak and high yield on the vineyard. Jacky Truchot did not do any green harvest to reduce yields. His wines are always close to the maximum yield the appelation allows.

All the wines from Jacky Truchot in this auction are acquired directly at the domaine by the current owners.

Burgundy

The historic Domaine Bertagna once belonged to the Cistercian monks, famous for founding the Clos de Vougeot in the 13th century. The estate's cellars and vineyards are located in the heart of the village nearby the Château and its ancient Chapter House. A desire for perfection and emphasis on quality, coupled with significant investments in technology and vineyard management, result in some of the region's most compelling wines. Nowadays omaine Bertagna is among the top ranking Domaines in Burgundy and is perhaps best known for its elegant, silky red wines, but it also produces one of the world's rarest white wines – Vougeot 1er Cru Blanc "Les Cras" from the Côtes de Nuits.

Romanée-Conti Grand Cru 2000

Domaine de La Romanée-Conti, Vosne-Romanée

Excellent level and appearance

R 1 bottle

Per lot € 15.500 – 18.500

The most legendary Vintage of the winery is the Romanée-Conti. This wine comes from a tiny plot of 1, 8140, this surface is unchanged since 1580, which currently provides 4,000 bottles per year. This parcel was originally named the “cros de Clous” and took the name Romanée in 1631. In 1760, the Prince de Conti has torn a high price to Madame de Pompadour. It was therefore called Romanée-Conti in 1793. Wines from this grand cru are delicate, which challenges winemakers and different tasters. Many do not understand this wine, which is to share in the very closed circle of great wines. Domaine de la Romanée -Conti, is considered one of the world’s most prestigious areas, with a vineyard of 25.5 hectares. The Domaine de la Romanée -Conti that we know today was founded in 1942 by Edmond Gaudin de Villaine. Currently, Aubert de Villaine and Henry -Frédéric Roch are co-manager. This area has become a legend, in fact, the prices of bottles reach new heights.

"The 1998 Mouton Rothschild is deep garnet-brick in color with lovely crème de cassis, dried roses, hoisin and baking spice notes with underlying notions of dried cherries and mulberries plus touches of wood smoke, incense and forest floor. Medium to full-bodied and packed with rich fruit framed by firm, chewy tannins, it is stacked with complex, evolving flavors and finishes with incredibly long-lasting perfumed notes. According to winemaker Philippe Dhalluin, this needs about three hours of decanting at this stage. I simply love the place this wine is in right now, possessing plenty of mature, tertiary characters yet still sporting bags of fruit." Robert Parker 97

"The 1986 Mouton-Rothschild is a blend of 80% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Merlot, 8% Cabernet Franc and 2% Petit Verdot that was picked from 2 October until 16 October. Winemaker Philippe Dhalluin, who was not working at the property back then, told me that the pH was fairly low at 3.54 when it is usually around 3.75, due to the natural tartaric acid in the vines. It has a powerful and intense bouquet as always: exemplary graphite and cedar scents, a touch of black pepper and incense. It seems to unfurl in the glass, like a motor revving its engine. The palate is beautifully balanced with its trademark firm tannic structure, a Mouton-Rothschild with backbone and masculinity. Layers of black fruit intermingling with mint and graphite, a hint of licorice emanating from the Merlot, gently fanning out and my God, it is incredibly long. It is not like the 1985 Mouton-Rothschild that is so fleshy and generous. This is serious, aristocratic Mouton, a true vin de garde and yes, I do think drinkers will have to wait until it reaches its true peak. Sometimes that is just the way it is." Robert Parker 100

“This is a far superior bottle to the one yesterday. An intense, earthy nose with wet sand, savory fruits, leather and a touch of apricots. The palate is medium to full-bodied, good acidity with much more vigor than I expected. Still a little linear and less complex than great Petrus, this has a masculine, conservative finish that like the distant cousin of a Pauillac.”

Vin de Table 'Maudit' 1990

Domaine Didier Dagueneau, Saint Adelain

Excellent level and appearance

R 1 Jennie – 500ml

Per lot € 250 – 450

Unusual conditions can turn Sauvignon Blanc into a dessert wine. Untypical they may be, but these wines are exciting in their rarity - and as fine as any appelation wine, whatever the authorities say. That is certainly how Didier Daguenau sees it from his vineyards in Pouilly, just over the Loire from Sancerre. But in the extraordinary hot summer of 1990, the last grapes Dagueneau picked had been struck by noble rot, and 5,000 bottles of wine turned out peachily sweet, soft and pungent. Noble rot is nothing unusual on the Semillon grapes of Sauternes, the Riesling grapes of Germany and a few other susceptible varieties, given the right weather conditions. But Sauvignon Blanc grapes are very prone to split as they ripen and develop, spoiling the wine. Didier Dagenau's "Maudit" was not the first sweet wine to be produced in the Sancerre region, nevertheless half-litre bottles of Dagueneau's "Maudit" (cursed wine) are now amongst the most expensive vin de tables in the world and Didier Dagueneau mischievously made a deliberately "lousy wine" out of really disgusting, rotten grapes.

Champagne

Orpale is the most complex wine of the Champagne De Saint Gall portfolio. The Grapes come from De Saint Gall's most sought-after holdings in the Côte des Blancs crus of Mesnil-sur-Oger, Oger, Cramant and Avize. Orpale is always a vintage Champagne, it is the result of what is an unusual practice in Champagne in that a good portion of the grapes used to make this Blanc de Blancs do not undergo malolactic fermentation. This preserves the mineral character of these chalky soils and also allows the wine to comfortably spend an shocking 12 years on lees while being hand-riddled in the deep recesses of the De Saint Gall cellar.

Quinta do Noval Nacional Vintage Port comes from a small plot at the heart of Noval vineyard, planted with ungrafted vines of native grape varieties. This is a wine that confirms something that is for me a deeply held belief. A wine is great because of the quality of the grapes, the character of the year and because of the place they come from. These things are far more important than anything we may do either in the vineyard or in the winery. We vinify the Nacional in the same way that the other grapes from the rest of the Quinta do Noval vineyard: foot treading in stone lagares. The result is always something very different for the Nacional wine compared to the wines from the rest of the Quinta. The Nacional Vintage Port is what it is because of the grapes and where they come from, not because of anything particular that we may do in the winery. Its terroir forges its greatness. Christian Seely

Glossary of Terms

Into Neck:
Normal level for all wines. In wines over 10 years of age, this level suggests excellent provenance. Rarely used, except to emphasize a particularly good fill level when other fill levels in the same lot are less than perfect.

Base Neck:
A common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

Top-Shoulder:
Again, a common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

Very High Shoulder:
Acceptable fill level for wines 8 or more years of age. Suggests proper storage conditions throughout its life. Natural occurrence for wines of this age.

High Shoulder:
Usually not a problem for wines in excess of 20 years of age. This level may be caused by easing of the cork combined with natural evaporation. Check the clarity and the color of the wine in the bottle as a secondary indicator of provenance.

High-to-Mid-Shoulder:
Refer to High Shoulder and Mid-Shoulder level descriptions.

Mid Shoulder:
May suggest ullage during the life of the wine due to either easing of the cork or inconsistent storage conditions. Not abnormal for wines 30 or more years of age. As additional indicators of risk, definitely inspect clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as condition of the cork.

Low Shoulder and Below:
Suggests poor provenance. Definitely a risk and generally not saleable, with exception given to rare bottlings and/or labels. Not recommended for consumption.

Wines are described in this catalogue as accurately as possible. Buyers are urged to make allowances for slight variations in ullages and conditions. No guarantee is made regarding provenance, and no returns will be accepted.
