Neck:

Normal level for all wines. In wines over 10 years of age, this level suggests excellent provenance. Rarely used, except to emphasize a particularly good fill level when other fill levels in the same lot are less than perfect.

Base Neck:

A common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

Top-Shoulder:

Again, a common fill level at which many Châteaux release their wine. For wines of any age, this level suggests excellent provenance.

Very High Shoulder:

Acceptable fill level for wines 8 or more years of age. Suggests proper storage conditions throughout its life. Natural occurrence for wines of this age.

High Shoulder:

Usually not a problem for wines in excess of 20 years of age. This level may be caused by easing of the cork combined with natural evaporation. Check the clarity and the color of the wine in the bottle as a secondary indicator of provenance.

High-to-Mid-Shoulder:

Refer to High Shoulder and Mid-Shoulder level descriptions.

Mid Shoulder:

May suggest ullage during the life of the wine due to either easing of the cork or inconsistent storage conditions. Not abnormal for wines 30 or more years of age. As additional indicators of risk, definitely inspect clarity and color of the wine in the bottle, as well as condition of the cork.

Low Shoulder and Below:

Suggests poor provenance. Definitely a risk and generally not saleable, with exception given to rare bottlings and/or labels. Not recommended for consumption.

Wines are described in this catalogue as accurately as possible. Buyers are urged to make allowances for slight variations in ullages and conditions. No guarantee is made regarding provenance, and no returns will be accepted.

Neither seller nor Winefield's shall be liable for any incidental or consequential damages arising from the sale of any property.

Notwithstanding any other terms of these Conditions of Sale, if within 21 days after the sale, Winefield's has received from the Buyer of any property notice of a claim in writing alleging that any lot is short or that any statement in the catalogue concerning such lot is not well founded, then in its sole and absolute discretion will decide any such claim as between the Seller and the Buyer and may rescind the sale and refund the purchase price received.

3. As used in these Conditions of Sale, the term "the final bid" means the price at which a lot is knocked down to the Buyer, and the term "the purchase price" means the sum of the final bid and the premium payable by the Buyer under Condition 7.

4. Winefield's reserves the right to withdraw any lot before or at the time of sale or to combine two or more lots.

5. Many of the lots in this sale are offered subject to a reserve, which is a confidential minimum price below which the lot will not be sold. Winefield's may implement the reserve by bidding on behalf of the Seller.

The auctioneer has the right to reject any bid and to advance the bid at his /her absolute discretion and, in the event of any dispute between bidders, to determine the successful bidder or to re-offer and re-sell the property in dispute. Should there be any dispute after the sale, Winefield's record of final sale shall be conclusive. On the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, the Buyer assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot and may be required to sign a confirmation of purchase, supply his /her name and address, and pay the full purchase price thereof. If the Buyer fails to comply with any such requirement, the lot may, at the auctioneer's discretion, be re-auctioned and sold again.

7. The purchase price payable by a Buyer shall be the sum of the final bid and a premium of 20% of the final bid.

8. The full purchase price of each lot shall be paid in full at the time of the sale or in such manner as the Buyer has arranged with Winefield's prior to the auction. The sale price shall be exclusive of any storage or delivery charges. Title to the property will not pass until payment has been made.

9. Goods will be released to the Buyer only on presentation of an invoice marked "Paid," signed by Winefield's. Not less than an entire lot can be taken or delivered to one address and unless otherwise agreed in writing all goods shall be removed or instructions given for removal within 5 working days after the sale.

10. Bids which are submitted to Winefield's in writing or otherwise, prior to the sale, for execution at or below a specified price, are entertained and executed by Winefield's for the convenience of the bidders, but Winefield's shall not be responsible for failing to execute such bids or for errors relating to the execution of such bids.
